Proposals for mall

No one can deny the importance of malls in people's lives today, as it acquires all of what they need at the moment, such as household items, clothes, electrical appliances, mobile phones, office supplies and more.

The malls currently contain more entertainment than the past, such as movie theaters, the foodcorts, and the Kids corner, in addition to banks and some commercial places for telecommunications companies.

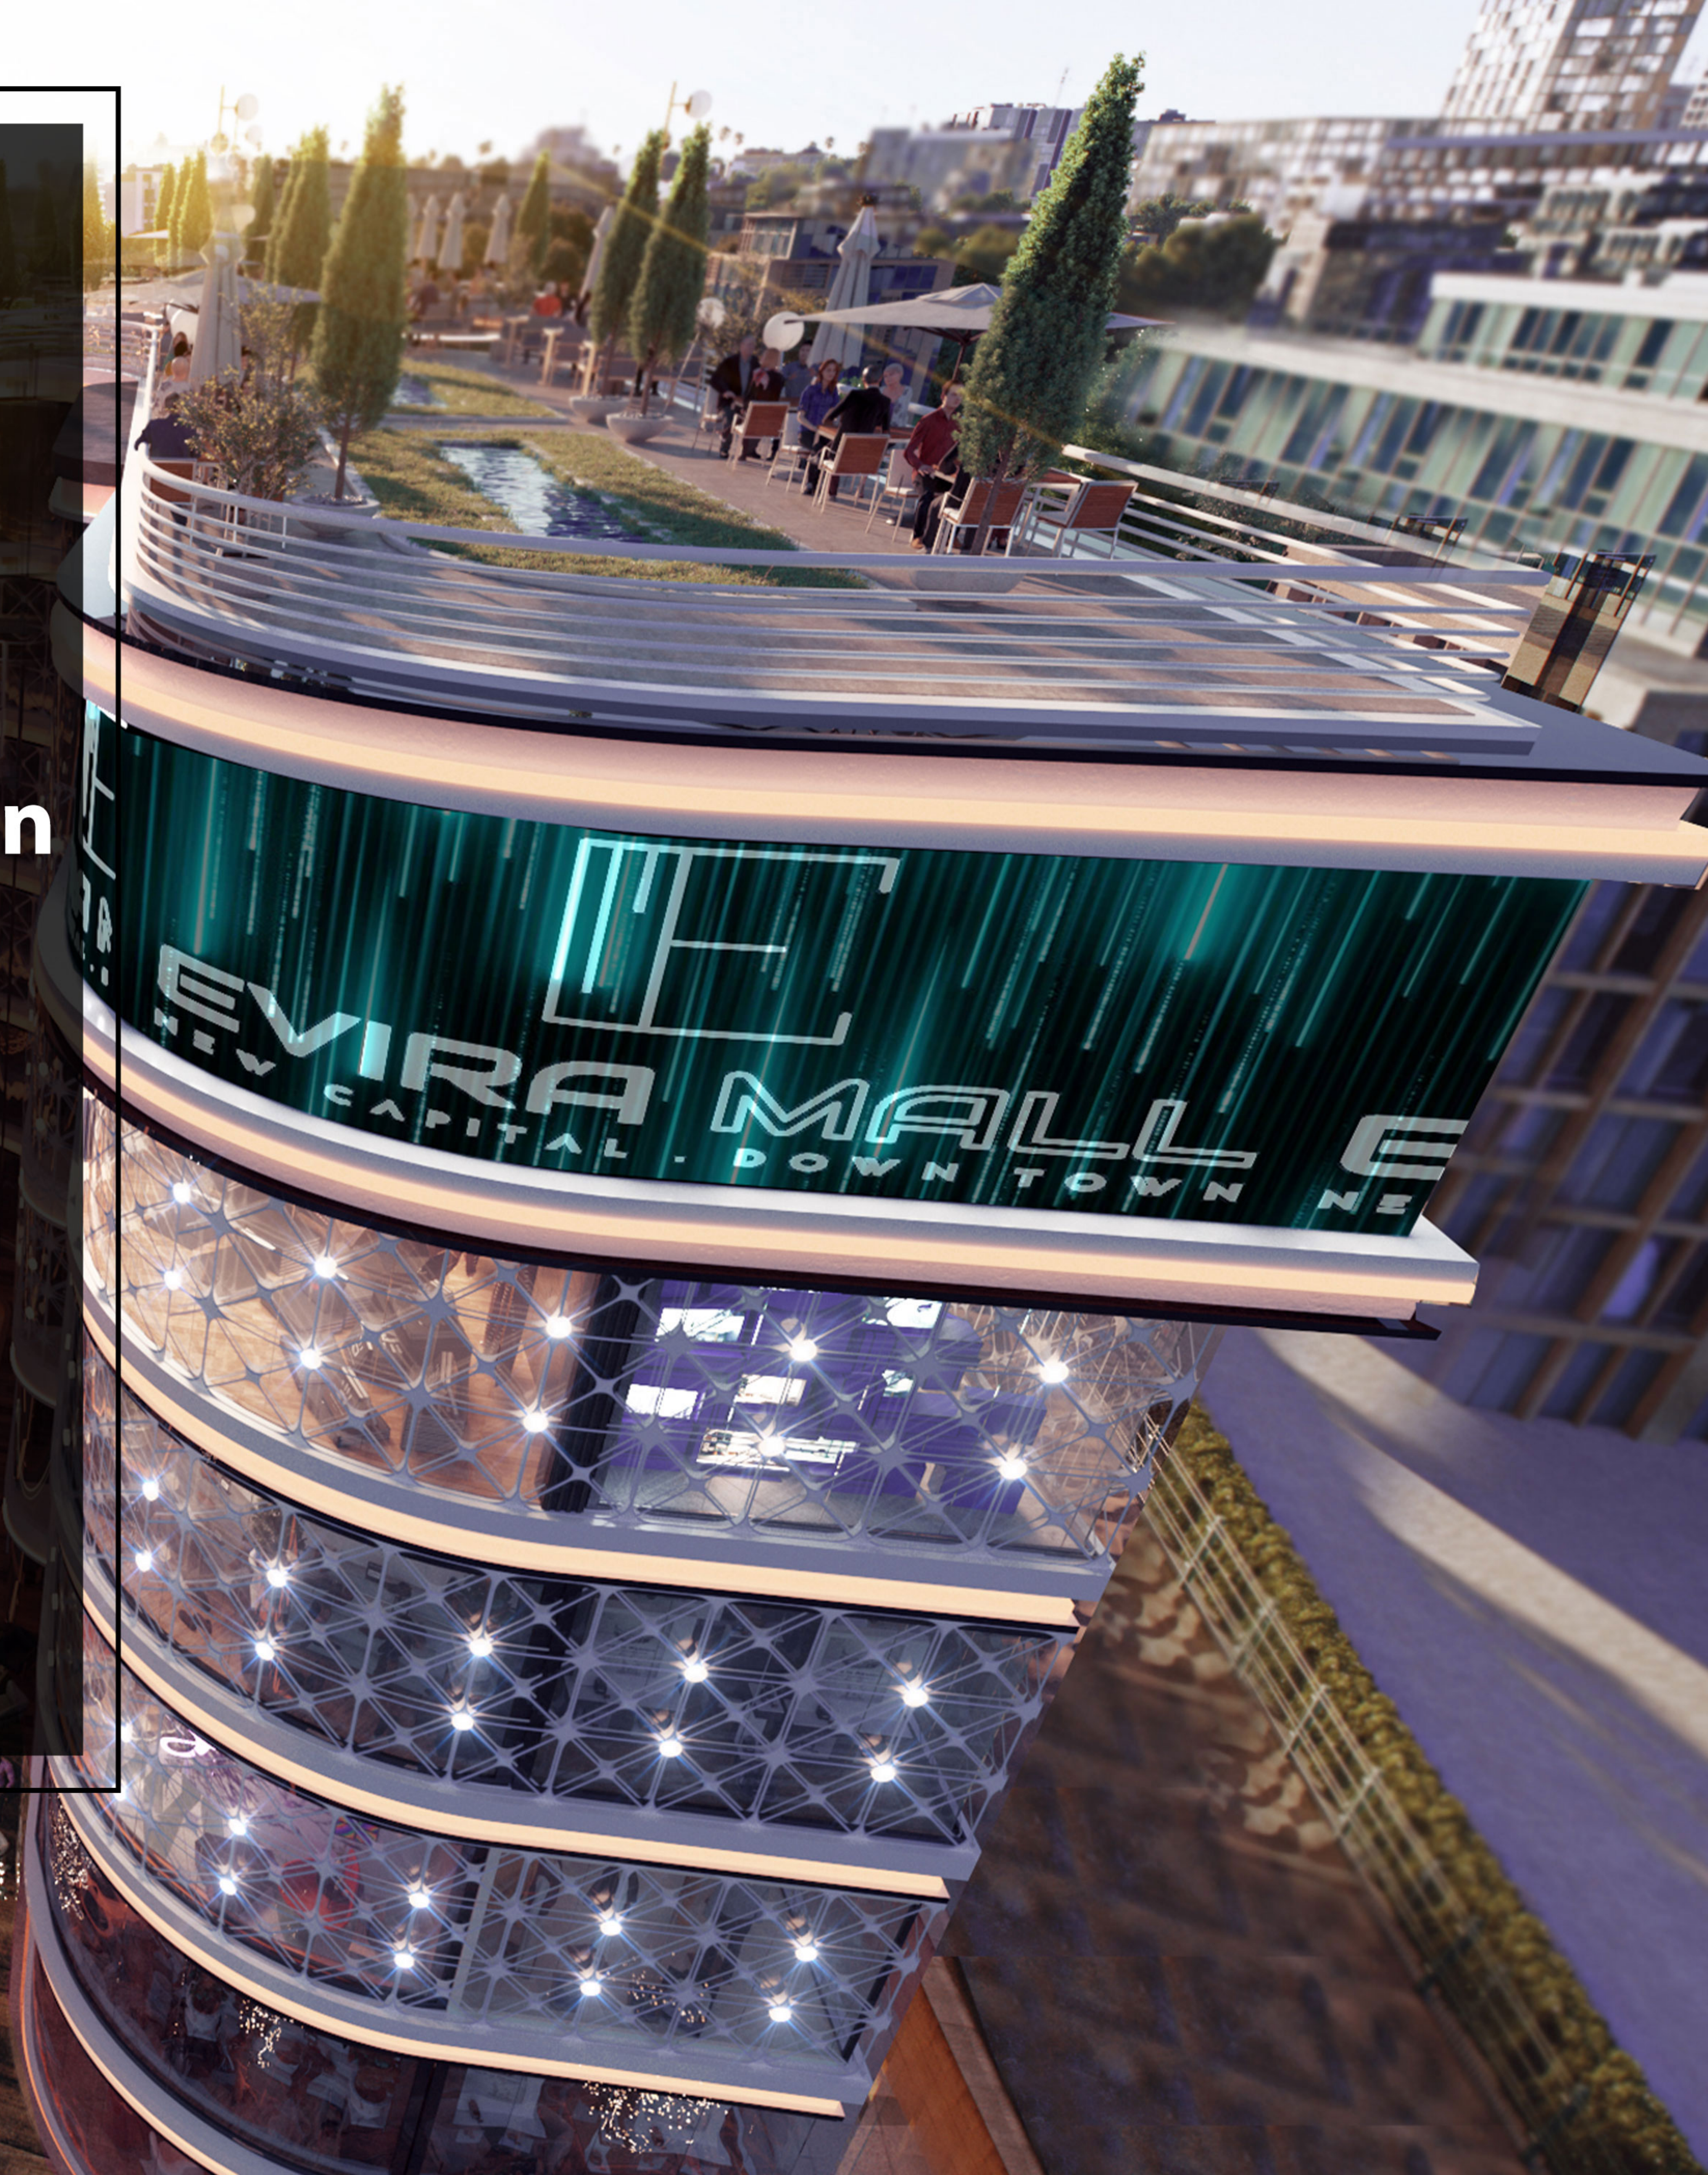

And as the years passed, whenever there were many technological developments, and many clear industrial intelligence were used in commercial centers, such as financial transactions through mobile phones, smart parking and advertising displays, as well as advertisements that reach customers via phone messages and emails, and there are also many Commercial Brands has made a special program for it on mobile platforms, so that the customer downloads it and through it knows the locations of the new branches and the latest product news and their work dates and any update for this product
